GOOD ADVICE.

Several years ago I was covered with Boils to such an extent that my life was a misery. After trying a number of other remedies without any benefit, I was advised by a wholesale druggist at Columbus to try S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). One bottle of S. S. S. cured me entirely. I have not had a Boil since. To those afflicted with Boils or Skin Eruptions I give the same advice my wholesale druggist gave me—take S. S. S. commenced taking Swift's weeks I was permanently cured.

The census of New York City has been taken by the municipal authorities and shows 197,214 more in-showed.

The New York Star is of the opinion that the next House of Representatives will be Democratic.
It says the Democratic nominees are unusually strong.

Miss Winnie Davis has severed her engagement to Mr. Alfred the Confederacy has not been flirting. It would be a dangerous precedent.

A young sport is in jail in New

It is likely that he had beforehand poured a good quantity of the same stuff into himself.

Attorney General Warner Miller is mentioned for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed the late Justice Miller. If appointed, we doubt that he will drop the Littlefield, the partner of Geo. V.

treasury of this State in 1865, is now in the Tombs prison in New has begun to overtake this veteran thief and embezzler.

Harrison says he has a contempt

That is to say he has a contempt for New York has captured both the

The grinding heel of the tyrannical McKinley tariff bill is being felt heavily upon the necks of the farmers, already. Owing to the increased duty on tin, and the consequent increase in the price of cans, several canning factories have shut down. This causes great loss to many farmers. The Republicans make laws for the special protection of the millionaire monopolists, and the laboring classes, especially of the South, may go to fiddler's green for aught they care.

Did the reader ever stop and consider why such a large per cent of anti monopoly papers are failures, while so many that serve the interests of monopoly get rich. There is but one cause: Monopoly sustains its papers, and the people do not fight them, and when the people attempt to sustain anti-monopoly papers monopoly fights them with all its might and main. Therefore, the only chance is for the people to adopt their tactics, fight monopoly papers, and sustain their own with redoubled vigor.—National Economist.

We have received a marked copy of The Topeka (Kansas) Capital, a green eyed and gory mouthed Radical sheet, which devotes almost its entire editorial page to the abuse and misrepresentation of Col. Polk and the Alliance. It says the Alliance is a Rebel scheme to disrupt the Republican party, and, in Kansas, to defeat Senator Ingalls. We think the Kansasans would be far better off if it succeeds in overcoming the Ingalls octopus in whose unrelenting grasp they are struggling to day. The Capital also takes occasion to ridicule, vilify and slander North Carolina. This comes in bad taste from poor, bleeding, salivated Kansas. We may not make so much corn, but we burn wood, have enough to eat, and sleep under a pile of cover.

The Capital should change its name to The Capitalist, as it is evidently a subsidized organ of that class. Boodle is the "sick'em" that makes it bark.

THE BOOKS OUR YOUTH
SHOULD READ.

At the special request of an enlightened lady friend, who believes that its careful perusal would be a source of profit to the numerous young readers of THE CAUCASIAN, we publish the following reply of our townsmen, Mr. T. J. Lee, the druggist, to an anxious Sampson mother who recently requested the loan of some books, and his opinion, also, as to the character of the literature she ought to place in the hands of her son—a young fellow just beginning to develop a taste for literature.

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 10th, '90.

Mrs. —

My Dear Madam:

Yours of the 5th inst., duly received. I regret that I cannot send you any of Irving's works, having given the few copies of that author which Sherman's thieves and cut-throats did not steal from me in April, '65 to the Clinton Literary Association.

It gives me pleasure to endorse your views as to the character of the literature that should be placed in the hands of children, for the heart and mind are greatly influenced by what we read. Instead, however, of works of fiction, with which you seem inclined to furnish him, I would most kindly, yet cautiously, suggest History and the Bible for your son now. Let him read and study both carefully for a few years, and then his taste for beneficial results. But, be careful that he reads only the works of chaste, classic authors—as Scott, Dickens, Thackeray, Bulwer, and Disraeli, not forgetting our own American Cooper, Irving, Hawthorne and Poe. If I had a boy I would rather read Scott first, for I regard him as the brightest, most penetrating and without kindliest genius that the world has produced in two hundred years. His writings have charmed and lifted up the world, as a father lifts his child, to a wider view of the world of truth, and beauty springing above, beyond and around us. No man ever did more for English literature than "The Great Wizard of the North."

Over the mighty flood of popular sensational sensational literature, he shows a star of purest ray serene, pointing to the highest ideals of human attainment.

When your son has finished Scott, then give him the other authors named above, and in the order in which they are designated, and when he has read all these he will have no taste for what classic Doctor Kingsbury, of the Wilmington Messenger (than whom no North Carolinian has done greater service for pure literature.) properly characterizes as the "filthy and filthy" literature of the day, that is doing more than anything else to corrupt the youth of America.

I find that I have written to greater length than I intended, hoping that you may accept the crude suggestions above in the spirit in which they have been indited, that they may not be altogether profitless to your boy, and thanking you, also, for the compliment of soliciting my advice in a matter of such vital importance (I think), to you and yours, I am, my dear madam, Very sincerely,

Your very obedient servant,

T. J. LEE.

$10,000 DAMAGES.

Against the Western Union Telegraph Company.

An opinion has just been handed down, says the State Chronicle, by the State Supreme Court, in which $10,000 damages are awarded to J.
T. Young, of Craven county, against the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Last year Young's wife was taken very ill in Columbia, S. C. Mr.
Young resided at New Bern in this State, and his wife telegraphed him that she was sick and requested him to come to her at once. He did not get the message until six days later, and in the meantime Mrs.
Young died and was buried. Young did not know of either fact till all was over.

Young at once brought suit for damages in the Superior court and won the case; but the Western Union appealed and carried the case to the Supreme court which has just confirmed the opinion of the court below.

MOORE CLAIMS THE HONOR.

The Jonesboro Leader comes to the front with this bit of historical information:

We have good authority for saying that Vance was first nominated for Governor at Peter Morris's muster ground in Moore county.

After the muster, a political meeting was held and Mr. Neill A.
Cameron placed the name of Col.
Vance in nomination for Governor.
It is needless to say that the nomination was made by acclamation.

It was noted in the papers and the movement gathering strength, culminated in the election of Vance to the Governorship of North Carolina.

Col. A. A. F. Seawell, Attorney at law, of this place, was the chief of the meeting, and can vouch for this incident.

Rhode Island is a Democratic State.

election the Republican majority was cut down by half.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—By W. H. Ballou.— Henry Henshaw, a young artist, while traveling in a car, mentally sketches the person of his ideal wife.
To his astonishment he sees his ideal reflected in the mirror, she being one of a party of four consisting of an old man, presumably her father, a governess and a man with a villainous countenance.
He makes a sketch of the party. During the night the girl plays extraneously on her violin. He determines to make her acquaintance, but upon arising in the morning he finds that the train has been in the Grand Central depot some hours, and that the party of four has disappeared.

CHAPTER II.—By Ella Wheeler Wilcox—Mr. Crawford, his daughter Edna, Miss Brown, a governess, and Dr. Watson occupy a flat on West Thirty-eighth street. Their names are all assumed to hide some secret. Edna tells her father that she hates Dr. Watson and objects to his presence in the house, but Mr. Crawford insists that the doctor's presence is necessary to him. Watson possesses hypnotic influence over Edna and is leagued with Miss Brown in a secret compact. As predicted by him, Edna plays on her violin at night.
A month later Henshaw recognizes Watson at a hygienic exhibition. By means of the sketch made in the car a detective locates the doctor at the Thirtieth street flat, but upon calling finds that Henshaw has moved. The same day a strange woman calls at the flat, wearing a gown of white satin, with a large sash of white silk at her slender waist.

CHAPTER III.—By Maj. Alfred C. Calhoun—Tom Wogly, a detective, calls at Henshaw's studio and says if he saw Dr. Watson talking to a woman on Union square. He shadowed the woman to a boarding house on Second Avenue. Henshaw's father calls and tells the young artist that he is in the power of Banker Hartman, who can ruin him.
He implores his son to marry the Banker's daughter and thus save him. Meanwhile the Crawfords have moved forther up town. Edna's loved one, Watson increases, and finally packing up her violin and some effects she leaves the house. While writing an advertisement in the World office a man asks her to read his advertisement to see if it is spelled correctly. The advertisement is for a female violinist.

CHAPTER IV.—By Alan Dale.—Henshaw in time becomes engaged to Lena Hartman, making a martyr of himself. As he terms it, Miss Hartman has a Mrs. Smith for a companion. The artist calls one day for a portrait of Lena, and finds upon a table a brooch containing a portrait of Dr.
Watson. It was dropped by Mrs.
Smith, who returns to seek for her property and finds it in Henshaw's hand. Explanations follow, and Henshaw learns that Dr. Watson is Mrs.
Smith's husband; that his name is Leopardi and that he is a hypnotist.
He has numerous aliases, Henshaw being among the number. He aban-dons his wife two months after marriage, and she has since been seeking him for revenge. Mrs. Smith and Henshaw agree to join forces and expose the villain.

CHAPTER V.—By Howe & Hummel.
Dr. Watson is encountered on Broadway by Harry Steinmetz, concert manager and old friend, who invites him to Steinway Hall to hear his new violin artist, who makes her debut that evening. The doctor leaves Steinmetz and rides to Union Square, where he unexpectedly encounters Edna Crawford.

He seeks to detain her, when Henshaw appears and thrusts the doctor aside. While they are quarreling Edna disappears. The artist meets Banker Hartman, who insists that Henshaw shall accompany him and Lena to the Academy of Music that night.

Meanwhile Dr. Watson comes to the conclusion that Steinmetz's violinist must be Edna Crawford. By a secret letter he verifies his suspicions.
Henshaw excuses himself to Hartman, and leaving the Academy of Music enters Steinway Hall. He is watched by Dr. Watson.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

For Congress—2nd District, BENJAMIN F. GRADY.
For Judge—6th District, EDWIN T. BOYKIN.
For Solicitor—6th District, OLIVER R. ALLEN.

CLINTON, N. C., OCT. 23, 1890.

The Republican Clerk is going home from Washington to vote.

Mr. J. M. Newbome has declared himself the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 2nd District.

The court has awarded Palace car Pullman $25,000 from the Wagner car company for infringement.

The Sanford Express says:—There is a remarkable dearth of marriages in this community. The trouble appears to be the young ladies are not old enough yet.

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina convened on Tuesday in the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington. About 300 delegates, clerical and lay, are in attendance.

Miss Julia Magruder, a daughter of the late General John B. Magruder, of the Confederate army, who held the "Peninsula" against McClellan in the spring of 1862, begins in the New York Ledger of October 18 a serial entitled "Deborah's Daughter." The story is an exquisite and artistic adaptation of the Biblical tale.

Maj. Wm. A. Graham a member of the Alliance, was a candidate before the nominating convention of the 8th District for Congress, but was defeated by Col. Cowles. He was urged to run as an independent, but declined, saying he would vote for Col. Cowles and advised all others to do so. He could not countenance or support an independent movement. This is commendable on the part of Maj. Graham, whom we had all along believed to be too good a man to cause disruption and defeat in Democratic ranks by going on a "fool's errand."

Owing to a misapprehension as to Senator Vance's position on the Sub-Treasury bill, the Senator has written a letter in which he says: "if that bill should be demonstrated to be constitutional by any decision of the Supreme Court, or otherwise, I would cheerfully support it, notwithstanding any objection to its practicability, if the farmers desired it. That position I still maintain." The Chronicle says Col. Livingstone stated in Raleigh that the Supreme court had lately decided that the Government could loan money. If Col. Livingstone is correct, we have no doubt Senator Vance will gladly support the bill.

MR. GRADY AT BURGAW.

The Burgaw Herald says:—Hon. B. F. Grady, our next Congressman, addressed his fellow citizens at Burgaw on the 1st Monday in October. Owing to inadequate notice (only three days) the audience was not near as large as it would have been had timely notice been given. The court room was however, nearly filled, and following a graceful introduction by Mr. Thos. J. Armstrong, for one hour Mr. Grady received the undivided attention of the Pender democracy while he dwelt upon the evils of the past and present system of legislation in reference to our people. This is one nomination where the office sought the man and when he goes to Washington he will successfully measure lances with any member in the United States Congress.

THE ARCH ENEMY.

Their "rummy Appeals on Personal Grounds."

A "scratcher" or an independent is doing more damage to good government than if he were to join the Radical party openly, for if he openly joined the Radicals he would be known and guarded against. Let all true Democrats repel, puny appeals on personal grounds, coming from their enemies in pious garb, and vote fairly and squarely the Democratic ticket. Greensboro Patriot.

Alliance Department.

ALLIANCE NOTES, DISCUSSIONS AND THE DOINGS OF THE VARIOUS LODGES.

It will be encouraging to the Alliance to hear that the Alabama Alliance men are getting an advance on cotton direct from Liverpool. General manager Gailther of the Alliance Exchange of Montgomery Ala. says the Atlanta Constitution, has the money to advance to farmers $35 per bale on 500,000 bales. This is no humbug and speaks volumes to the Alliance men throughout the cotton growing States of the Union.

Personal Liberty vs. Physical Slavery.

We are all free American citizens, enjoying our personal liberty; but most of us are in physical slavery, suffering from scrofula, salt rheum or some other form of impure blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great blood purifier which dissolves the bonds of disease, gives health and perfect physical liberty.

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or going humors in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every impurity from the blood.

Scrofula

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed and by a continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy!" B. C. JONES, Alma, Lincoln County, Mo.

LOCALS:
—Have you registered?
—he hunter is abroad, and the tired quail falls before his fatal fire.
—Quite a number went from this place to the Goldsboro Fair yesterday.
—Only TWO days more! If you have not registered, go and do it at once.
—Do you wish to vote? Then you must register before the 25th day of October.
—A new registration is ordered this year. If you wish to vote, register at once.
—We are glad to learn that Mrs. J. H. Royal, who has been quite sick, is convalescing.
—Remember THE CAUCASIAN when you "chuck" the price of a bale of cotton down in your pocket.
—Hon. W. M. Robbins, the great campaigner of the West, will speak in the Courthouse to-night. Let everybody come to hear him.
—Searlock, the negro candidate for Congress, in this District, addressed a number of his fellow-citizens in the Courthouse Tuesday.
—It is the duty of every good citizen to vote. But you cannot vote this year unless you register again. Do not delay. Do it immediately.
—Hiram Lodge No. 98 A. F. & A. M., was in regular communication last Friday for work in the third degree. Much other important business was transacted.
—We would call special attention this week to the new advertisements of Messrs. A. F. Johnson & Co., G. A. Clute, and Frank W. Thornton. See what they are offering the public.
—It is the duty of every Democrat to see that he is properly registered, and then that his neighbor is registered. It is his further duty to leave no stone unturned in the effort to elect every nominee of the party.
—The date of holding the Sampson Fair is November 26th to 29th. Don't forget it. Senator Vance, Gov. Fowle and Col. L. L. Polk have accepted invitations to be present and make addresses.
—We are requested to say that there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Sampson County Agricultural Society in Clinton on next Saturday, the 25th. Important business will come before the meeting and a full attendance is desired.
—We have seen some wood engraving done by Norman Jennett, a 14 year old step-son of Mr. W. R. King. It was done with a pocket knife and shows that Norman has remarkable talent for engraving. If placed under an engraver he would become skilled in the profession.
—We are in receipt of a communication stating that the report that Mr. Jos. E. Bryan, of Newton Grove township, would run as an independent candidate for sheriff is untrue. Our correspondent says Mr. Bryan will support the Democratic nominees from constable up, and advises all others to do so.
—We heard some plaintive wails issuing from the jail one day last week and upon inquiry learned that a negro boy had stolen Mr. R. C. Holmes' over coat and was now reeling in the County Jail. Sheriff Spell only the day before took three boys off to the Penitentiary for stealing, but this fellow would not profit by their example.
—Democrats must not sleep on their oars if they would win a grand victory next November, and secure a continuation of good government. They must be active in the fight and see that every man registers and goes to the election. As the Shelby Aurora says, the Republican party is like a jointed snake—it flies to pieces sometimes but always manages to get together about November.
—In going from Clinton to Oak Plain church, in Taylor's Bridge township, last week, we saw some fine farms and excellent crops along the way. We met many of the prosperous farmers of the section and they were all smiling and cheerful over abundant harvests. Our farmers have perhaps made better crops this year than in any previous one for eight or ten years.
—The law enacted by the last Legislature requires a new registration. This means that every man, whether he was registered before or not, must go in person to the registrar of his voting precinct and give in his name. Don't put it off. If you intend to vote in the coming election and do not attend to this matter in the meantime, you'll be left on that day. It is a duty you owe to yourself, your party and posterity to go and register.

MCDANIELS.
Mr. Willie Herring, aged 16 years, son of Mr. W. W. Herring, died of pneumonia on last Thursday week. He was an excellent young man and is the third son Mr. Herring has lost in the past few years.
Mr. Landon and Mrs. Langdon Cooper were married last Sunday at the residence of the bride in this township.

Mr. F. M. White planted the Peterkin cotton this year and from a lot of 2400 lbs in the seed he got 1005 lbs of lint. This seems to be one of the best yielding kinds of cotton now grown in the county.

Mr. Ollen Lewis, a prominent citizen of this township aged 73 years, died on the 16th inst. He has been afflicted for two years with rheumatism and paralysis. The funeral was preached by Rev. R. C. Sandlin at Siloam Baptist church of which the deceased was a consistent member, and where he was buried.
PINEY GROVE.
Some miscreants set fire to Mr. W. E. Faison's cotton house one night last week and but for Mr. Faison's fortunately seeing the blaze soon after it kindled and summoning his farm hands and neighbors with his farm bell, he would have lost a thousand dollars worth of cotton. The fire was soon extinguished, entailing a loss of about ten dollars. Mr. Faison says he will pay one hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the fiendish incendiaries.
LITTLE COHARIE.
Mr. James Faircloth has probably the finest bull in the county. He is of the mountain guinea stock and four years old. He is much longer than an ordinary animal, his legs are only about 18 inches long, he is nearly as broad as he is high and his head and neck resemble that of a buffalo. He will be a curiosity at the next Sampson Fair, if Mr. Faircloth can be induced to send him.

Mr. Smith who was ordained at this session of the Presbytery, preached a strong sermon. A large crowd from lower Sampson and Duplin was present on Sunday, and all were served to a sumptuous dinner in the glove near the church.

All the World there is but one God. Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wretch. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they could drink of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its use. Care exercised. Send for circular and full particulars. Address: Dr. Haines, 200 Broadway, N. Y.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.
GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 23, 1890.
MRS. JOE PERSON—Dear Madam—About April, 1887, I treated Sam Privett for Scrofula affecting the glands of the neck. I had done for him all that could, and considered his chances for life very small and tried him so, and that if you would benefit him with your Remedy, I would give you a certificate of the fact. That you have done your part the boy is now a living witness, and I don't hesitate to furnish your Remedy in any similar cases I may be called upon to treat. I am very truly,
